The fact is simple: Every attorney can benefit from using Legal Authority. There is no particular Legal Authority client. All Legal Authority clients share one common trait: They want to get the best job possible, with the organization they are most comfortable with from an economic, opportunity, and cultural standpoint.

While Legal Authority can help law students and recent graduates obtain their first jobs, it™s also a practical service used by partners and general counsels at prestigious worldwide firms and corporations. Legal Authority is, quite simply, the most effective legal job search company in existence. The reason our service is used by so many attorneys from so many different levels of the profession is due to the fact that it enables attorneys to get an œinstant snapshot of the market and immediate interviews with employers where a good business case exists for hiring them.

Legal Authority helps anyone in the legal profession find work by using targeted mailing. It™s been estimated that more than 85% of legal positions are obtained by directly contacting law firms. Many firms, for example, do not advertise their open positions and/or cannot afford the fees that recruiters charge. To obtain work there, you must contact them directly and let them know you™re available. But first, you must find out who and where they are. And that™s exactly what Legal Authority provides.

To those looking for their first job, Legal Authority is an invaluable tool to help you reach the employers you won™t find in the want ads or on job boards. To established attorneys, Legal Authority helps you evaluate the market, to see œwhat else is out there.

We start with the world™s most comprehensive legal database, consisting of more than half a million legal employers throughout the US and 150 other countries. Our experts sort through and narrow down those employers, using the criteria you select (by location, by practice, by size of firm, etc.). Finally, you™re left with a list of potential employers who specifically match the requirements you™re looking for. You get a tailor-made list of contacts waiting to receive your resume.

Legal Authority: No matter where you™re at in your career, we can help you.
