LEGAL MYTH:

I will never find a law firm position.

LEGALAUTHORITY:

This position could be tens of thousands of dollars more than you are making now. This position may not even be advertised and you are not going to find this law firm either by using Monster, 15 gazillion web sites, a headhunter, or even Martindale Hubble. Chances are ... this firm is already in our database. Let us put you in touch with them today!

LEGAL MYTH:

It is better to work with a recruiter to find a law firm position.

LEGALAUTHORITY:

Unless you have stellar qualifications, there are very few recruiting firms that will work with you. While recruiters are enormously helpful in getting candidates a position, the fact of the matter is that unless you have stellar qualifications they will not be able to do you much good. Stellar qualifications mean that you are coming from a top law firm and attended a top law school. Recruiters are beneficial in making good matches; however, using a recruiter may not always be in your best interest.

In addition, smaller firms often do not use recruiters. This can result in you missing out on joining the next Skadden Arps or other great firm that does not use recruiters. Moreover, in a tough economy law firms like anyone need to cut back on their expenses. Using our service can help you get the position you are seeking without a recruiter's involvement.
