

Legal Authority Brings You the Ultimate Legal Employment Opportunities

I

September 11, 2009

This press release is intended to inform the readers that Legal Authority is the premier online portal of legal employment opportunities.

Are you a fresh law graduate or an experienced legal associate or partner looking around for a change? How about gaining access to the biggest ever database of legal employers in the world? It is none other than Legal Authority with whom you can enjoy the once-in-a-lifetime chance of gaining an access to as many as 750,000 legal employers in just a single click.

With Legal Authority all your dreams in regard to your legal career can come true. After all, when it comes to Legal Authority they just know exactly how to find you a suitable job.

Once you become a member, Legal Authority will take care of your career concerns, and there won't be much that you will need to take care of as far as looking for legal job opportunities and conducting research is concerned. You can simply sit back and relax and let Legal Authority do the job search hard work for you.

First and foremost, Legal Authority is going to offer you a free consultation session wherein you will get the scope to talk in detail with a Legal Authority representative from the firm settling on whether you at all want to use the services of the firm or not.

Legal Authority will carry out focused mailings to some of the leading legal employers in the industry that you would aspire to work with. This can include anything from law firm opportunities to in-house opportunities to public interest openings or even legal jobs with the Government.

Once they pick out on the most suiting employers for you, the next thing that Legal Authority will do for you is write your resume in an impressive and more targeted way along with a cover letter only after carrying out detailed conversation with you. So once you start taking their services, you can be rest assured that your case will be dealt with a series of job searching applications that have a proven track record.

Finally if you choose to take the services of this legal job opportunity portal you can be rest assured to enjoy the best of services. After all Legal Authority is one of the exceptionally effective firms in the industry who decide on each legal placement only after tracing the self-initiated contacts on the part of the legal employers in the industry.

About Legal Authority

Legalauthority.com is one of the major legal employment opportunities portals in the world. The professional recruiters and reviewers at Legal Authority are law graduates from some of the best universities in the country including Columbia Law School, Harvard Law School, University of Virginia Law School, Washington University Law School, Washington & Lee University, and the University of California - Los Angeles, to name a few.

2

Legal Authority Contact Information:

175 South Lake Avenue, Suite 200
Pasadena, California
91101, United States