Legalauthority.com is known for its comprehensive job search methods. This is because, out here the record of legal employers is updated constantly on a daily basis along with valuable information about the process of recruitment that is followed in the law schools, business companies, United States court houses, schools, universities and law firms. You can easily get in touch with the recruiters through us. We can assure you of a shining career ahead in the law job market. You simply need to follow some of the basic steps as stated below:

- In the first stage you need to prepare a professional cover letter and a CV. Professionals at Legal Authority can assist you in making professional CV. They help you to incorporate all necessary details in your CV. They ensure that your resume contains all the details about your educational qualification, and prior work experience, if any. We try to prepare a custom made CV for you, so that it matches the requirements of the organization.
- Once you have signed up, you will be receiving a call soon for fixing up of an appointment date, where legal job experts will discuss with you in detail everything about your CV and the jobs you prefer to apply for.
- The site can even arrange for direct conversation in the scheduled interview. You can talk with the employment advocate to gather knowledge about present market scenario. You must be open to criticism. Constructive criticisms about your resume will help you impress your recruiters. You can avail of all these services for free, as we charge you nothing.
- While you are conversing with your advocate over the telephone, we will prepare a list of recruiters for you; we try to make sure that it meets all of your specifications. Legal Authority then further scans the list and shortlists the most preferred recruiters for you.
- Once you become a client of Legal Authority, you can make use of their online system. The skilled and competent resume writers at Legal Authority are some of the best in the world. This is because they take up a considerable period of time to make sure that your resume and cover letter gets noticed. Professionally created CVs help you to attain your dream legal jobs.
- There after, the Data Analysis Department looks into the CV and resumes for making sure that it is free from error and contains all the necessary information. Once the required corrections are made, your CV is then sent for printing. This whole process is completed within a day or two.
- The completed CV is sent to the Legal Authority Word Processing Center for generating a print out of the prepared document. Envelopes comprising the recruiters address and your return address are also included in the process.
- The applications are then sent to the respective candidates or applicants via the Federal Express. Finally, you are required to sign the cover letters, put them in the envelop, get your enveloped stamped and simply mail them to your preferred recruiters.
